

- "So live your life that the fear of death can never enter your heart.
- Trouble no one about their religion; respect others in their view, and
 - Demand that they respect yours. Love your life, perfect your life,
 - Beautify all things in your life. Seek to make your life long and
 - Its purpose in the service of your people.
- Prepare a noble death song for the day when you go over the great divide.
- Always give a word or a sign of salute when meeting or passing a friend,
- Even a stranger, when in a lonely place. Show respect to all people and
- Bow to none. When you arise in the morning, give thanks for the food and
- For the joy of living. If you see no reason for giving thanks,
- The fault lies only in yourself. Abuse no one and nothing,
 - For abuse turns the wise ones to fools and robs the spirit of its vision.
- When it comes your time to die, be not like those whose hearts
- Are filled with fear of death, so that when their time comes
- They weep and pray for a little more time to live their lives over again
- In a different way. Sing your death song and die like a hero going home."
